[New York, NY – July 26, 2019] Today, two-time Grammy Award winning singer/songwriter/multi-instrumentalist H.E.R. releases a new song and video entitled "21." The accompanying video showcases the whirlwind year she experienced as a 21 year-old and serves as a celebratory reminder and inspiration for everyone to pursue their dreams. H.E.R. will premiere the video today on YouTube at 1:30 PM ET with a live Q&A. Click here to watch.

"I wrote this song when I turned 21. It was one of the best years of my life! I'm experiencing all the things I prayed for as a kid and more. The scary part is, it's just the beginning," states H.E.R.

Some of the highlights from the past year include winning two Grammy Awards for Best R&B Album (H.E.R.) and Best R&B Performance ("Best Part" featuring Daniel Caesar) along with a rousing performance of “Hard Place” on the award show. Additionally, H.E.R. earned two 2018 Soul Train Music Awards, 2019 NAACP Image Award, 2019 BET Award, scored a #1 Billboard Top R&B Albums chart debut with I Used To Know Her, received RIAA multi-platinum certification for “Best Part” and gold certifications for “Focus” and the critically-acclaimed project H.E.R., sold-out her headlining I Used To Know Her tour, and more!

Up next for the now 22 year-old are performances at Lollapalooza (8/1), TODAY Show Citi Concert Series (8/30) and her very own inaugural sold-out Lights On Festival (9/14, Concord, CA). Earlier this week, H.E.R. was nominated for three MTV Video Music Awards – Best New Artist, Push Artist of the Year and Best R&B for “Could’ve Been” featuring Bryson Tiller.

Stay tuned for more news as H.E.R. continues to make her mark as one of today’s top multi-talented superstars.
