

THE LONE BELLOW RELEASE
MUSIC VIDEO FOR "MAY YOU BE WELL"
U.S. TOUR BEGINS FEBRUARY 16TH

The Lone Bellow's third studio album, *Walk Into A Storm*, was released last fall on Descendant Records/Sony Music Masterworks. The album was produced by Dave Cobb (Chris Stapleton, Sturgill Simpson, Jason Isbell) and recorded in Nashville, TN. Today, the band has released the music video for their single, "May You Be Well," filmed at Ocean Way Studios. "In a sharp display of vocals, Zach Williams and the equally impressive members of the indie-folk trio The Lone Bellow debut the stunningly simple video [that] leaves the attention fully on the performance," says Billboard.

Next week, The Lone Bellow kicks off their major U.S. tour. Beginning February 16th in Chattanooga, highlights include The Fonda in Los Angeles on March 4th, The Fillmore in San Francisco on March 6th and Town Hall in New York City on March 30th. New tour dates in April have been added as of today and a full list of tour dates are below.

"If there's a secret to the warm, wide-open sound of The Lone Bellow, it lies in absolute sincerity and commitment: As playful as their live shows can be, Zach Williams, Kanene Donehey Pipkin and Brian Elmquist perform with openhearted, vein-bursting conviction. All three of the band's albums - including the new Walk Into A Storm - ably capture the group's earnest, agreeable charm, dispensed via songs that amble and soar," said NPR of the new album. Around the time of release The Lone Bellow performed on Jimmy Kimmel Live! and CBS This Morning.
