

THE LONE BELLOW RELEASE MUSIC VIDEO FOR "TIME'S ALWAYS LEAVING"
STARRING OZARK ACTOR MARC MENCHACA

WALK INTO A STORM - OUT SEPTEMBER 15TH

SINGLE ENTERS THE TRIPLE A CHART

(August 10 – New York) Today, The Lone Bellow have released the music video for their single "Time's Always Leaving." Its "full of upbeat, irresistible grooves," says Entertainment Weekly. The video features actor Marc Menchaca who has appeared in Generation Kill, Homeland, and has a reoccurring role on the new Netflix series, Ozark. After being the #1 most added single at Triple A radio last week, "Time's Always Leaving" has officially landed on the chart. "Time's Always Leaving" leans heavily into the rootsy, big-hearted warmth that's made The Lone Bellow one of the most sure-footed crowd-pleasers in the business," said NPR.

The Lone Bellow's third studio album, Walk Into A Storm will be released September 15th on Descendant Records/ Sony Music Masterworks. The album was produced by Dave Cobb (Chris Stapleton, Sturgill Simpson, Jason Isbell) and recorded in Nashville, TN. Walk Into A Storm is available for pre-order here.

The Lone Bellow will hit the road in support of their new album beginning September 21st with Central Park's Summerstage supporting The Head and The Heart. Highlights include a performance at Toronto's Opera House, Chicago's Thalia Hall and Washington DC's 9:30 Club. All November tour dates will be supported by The Wild Reeds.

It's been three years since the band's victorious, Then Came The Morning was released. The album was produced by The National's Aaron Dessner and nominated for an Americana Music Award. The Lone Bellow appeared on Kimmel, Letterman, Conan, CBS This Morning, Later...with Jools Holland and James Corden in support of the album. In the years since the release the band left their beloved adopted home of Brooklyn and moved to Nashville, TN.

Additional tour dates will be announced soon!
