(January 18, 2019 – Los Angeles, CA) – Today, Atlanta hip-hop superstar and multiplatinum trailblazer Future releases his anxiously awaited seventh full-length album, Future Hnrxx Presents: The WIZRD. Get it HERE via Epic Records/Freebandz Entertainment. Upon arrival, it captured a spot in the Top 5 on Apple Music Overall Top Albums Chart and #1 on Apple Music Top Hip-Hop/Rap Albums Chart where it continues to hold strong.

Future Hnrxx Presents: The WIZRD sees the groundbreaking visionary perfect the sonic sorcery that cemented his place in the rap history books. He initially teased the release by way of the first single "Crushed Up." In a little under three weeks, it already eclipsed 10 million Spotify streams and over 7 million YouTube views for its music video. Attracting widespread critical acclaim, The Fader appropriately dubbed it “a colossal flex,” and HotNewHipHop touted it as “an immediate banger.”

Capitalizing on this momentum, he just dropped the follow-up “Jumpin on a Jet” last week. Nearing the four million mark on Spotify and 3 million on YouTube, his codeine-drenched crooning snaps into another magnetic and massive refrain, “Jumpin on and off a jet.” It’s as high class as it is hypnotic. The album also boasts a handful of blockbuster collaborations. “UNICORN PURP” [feat. Young Thug & Gunna] unites three of Atlanta’s most iconoclastic talents on one psyched-out banger. “FIRST OFF” [feat. Travis Scott] threads together wildly woozy melodies as these two titans lock into a chaotic call-and-response. That’s just the tip of the iceberg as this new body of work represents Future leveling up yet again, and the results prove nothing short of mind-blowing...

Following sold-out screenings on both coasts, his Official Documentary, The WIZRD, that is live on Apple Music now. A vignette into his world, viewers receive unmatched access to the reclusive icon’s story for the first time.

ABOUT FUTURE:

Where would hip-hop be without Future? With millions of singles and albums sold, countless packed shows, and streams in the billions, his shadow looms heavy over the game. He carried trap music from the bandos to fashion shows as a generation of Southern artists rose in his wake. A decade-long grind gave rise to an unbelievable string of mixtapes, reaching its apex on the trifecta of Monster, Beast Mode, and 56 Nights. 2015's DS2 became his first of five number one debuts on the Billboard Top 200 followed by What a Time To Be Alive with Drake and Evol. In 2017, he unleashed the platinum-certified Future and gold-selling Hndrxx back-to-back and emerged as “the first artist to release two Billboard Top 200 number ones in consecutive weeks.” Future’s “Mask Off” went quadruple-platinum, ascended to #5 on the Hot 100, and became his biggest smash yet. He performed on The Ellen DeGeneres Show, lit up Coachella, and headlined the massive “Nobody Safe” Tour. As he covered issues of GQ, Rolling Stone, and XXL, Hndrxx graced year-end lists from Pitchfork, Complex, Entertainment Weekly, Noisey, Variety, and more. He teamed with Young Thug for the collaborative epic Super Slimey, which captured #2 on the Billboard Top 200 upon arrival. Extending his reach yet again, he provides the soundtrack for the high-profile Superfly remake as he readies a barrage of new projects to be unveiled at his signature prolific pace.
