

JOHN K RELEASES MUSIC VIDEO FOR “IF WE NEVER MET”

SONG HAS AMASSED NEARLY 30 MILLION STREAMS

CURRENTLY CLIMBING THE RADIO AIRPLAY CHARTS AT HOT AC

(October 24, 2019 – Los Angeles, CA) – Rising pop sensation, John K, releases the music video for his stand-out single “if we never met.” Watch it HERE and get the song HERE via Epic Records.

The visual features John K and actress/influencer Inanna Sarkis (10 million followers) singing the tune separately in front of a backdrop of vintage video footage, until finally meeting at the end to reveal them together in the same room.

After racking up nearly 30 million streams, “if we never met” took the summer by storm, garnering attention by L’Officiel, Idolator and Rolling Stone – who marked the track as a “Song You Need To Know.” It was featured on Beats 1’s “Bop of the Week,” while also reaching #3 on Apple Music’s Today’s Hits and #2 on A-List Pop. Meanwhile at radio, “if we never met” continues to stay in the top 30 at Hot AC Radio after debuting at #34.

With more music on its way, get ready for the rise of John K.

ABOUT JOHN K

With a dynamic voice and effortless cool, John K invites listeners to experience an eternal summer all year-round. The Florida native quietly cemented himself as an artist to watch and in 2017, Elvis Duran handpicked the independent rising star as his “Artist of the Month.” Not only did he land features from Nylon, Billboard, Huffington Post, and more, but he also staked out coveted real estate on top Spotify playlists such as New Music Friday. Within two years, he independently amassed upwards of 50 million streams and charted a bona fide hit in the form of “OT.” Signed to Epic Records in 2019, he now brings the sunshine to soul on the if we never met EP.

#