Helmed by legendary Academy® Award-winning producer T Bone Burnett, the album boasts a series of fan favorite singles such as “Fire,” “Saint Honesty,” “No Such Thing,” and “Armor”—which Variety dubbed “exuberantly feminist.” Not to mention, she continues to attract widespread acclaim. In an in-depth profile, Los Angeles Times fittingly described the record as “raw” and “stripped down.” She also recently appeared on an episode of Carpool Karaoke alongside none other than Tony® Award winner

Ben Platt. Additionally, she just wrapped up a packed mini-tour with sellouts everywhere and hosted a New York Times Talk.

Amidst the Chaos represents Bareilles at her most exposed, engaging, and enthralling. Intimate piano and poetic lyrics comprise an emotional journey throughout these twelve tracks. “If I Can’t Have You” borders on simmering soul. Elsewhere, “Poetry By Dead Men” evokes the spirit of a literary opus. Everything culminates on the poignant and powerful ballad “A Safe Place To Land” [feat. John Legend], which highlights her range alongside the iconic crooner.

This week, Bareilles launches a full-scale television takeover. On Saturday April 6, she takes the stage for a performance on Saturday Night Live followed by Good Morning America April 8, The Ellen DeGeneres Show and The Late Late Show with James Corden April 10, and The Talk April 12. Be sure to tune in!

Sara Bareilles emerges with her most impassioned, inimitable, and important body of work yet Amidst the Chaos.
