

TOM WALKER SHARES NEW SONG “ALL THAT MATTERS” TODAY

KICKS OFF U.S. TOUR IN JULY

(May 15, 2019 – Los Angeles, CA) – Chart-topping troubadour Tom Walker uncovers a brand new track entitled “All That Matters” today. Get it HERE!

The song arrives hot on the heels of his latest full-length, What A Time To Be Alive, which bowed at #1 in the UK and James Corden enthusiastically christened as “brilliant.” A standout from the project, “Just You & I” is currently raising up the airplay charts in the U.S., while also heating up at Hot AC radio and impacting Top 40 radio two weeks ago. The track also continues to stay in the Top 5 on the UK Airplay Chart.

Penned for his grandmother Sadie, “All That Matters” showcases his instantly identifiable vulnerability. Strumming a solo acoustic guitar between glistening piano, he reaffirms an undeniable and universal message, “Love is all that matters in the end. Can’t spend your money when you’re dead. Can’t live this life again...At least we got love.”

About the song, Walker commented, “Last year, me and my Gran shared a bottle of wine and spent an evening chatting and catching up. No telly, no music, no distractions, it was just Reminiscing about all the good times—and the bad. A couple of weeks later, I sat down, and we wrote this based on the wealth of wisdom, knowledge and all the stories my Gran told me about her life. It’s one of the most honest songs I’ve ever written. I still struggle not to shed a tear when singing the second verse. This one’s for my Gran. It’s called, ‘All That Matters’.”

The song offers hardcore fans and supporters a gracious “thank you” following the runaway sustained success of What A Time To Be Alive.

Next up, Walker returns to U.S. soil for a much-anticipated nine-date North American tour this summer. It begins Wednesday July 24 at Lincoln Hall in Chicago, IL, visits major markets on the East Coast, and closes out Tuesday August 5 at Music Hall of Williamsburg in Brooklyn, NY.
