

DOE BOY – BIO

The Ohio based rapper, Doe Boy, emerged from the dangers of "East Cleveland" one of the poorest cities in America, to become one of most anticipated rappers of 2020. Doe Boy signed to the Freebandz imprint, soon after Future discovered his music. Doe once stated his relationship with Future was organic from the start. Doe Boy had a strong desire to be apart of the Freebandz brand. His career with the Atlanta label had a sudden hiatus, due to his prison time, but he returned with a bang delivering the Lex Luger and Zaytoven mixtape, In Freebandz We Trust. Since then, fans have caught wind of Doe's infectious flows on tracks with Lil Durk, Meek Mill, Young Thug and 21 Savage. After several successful solo mixtape and single releases, Doe Boy is gearing up for his new project Streetz Need Me 2 (production by Honorable CNote & Pierre Bourne) dropping December 20th. This is Doe's debut release on his joint venture deal with Freebandz and Epic Records, one of his biggest accomplishments to date. "The feeling is unreal" Doe says about the signing, "It still feels unreal today." "Walk Down" is the lead single from the project and was produced by Honorable CNote Another big achievement from this midwest artist, was charting on Billboard twice with past singles "100 Shooters and "I'm Scared." Plus, Doe Boy graced the 2019 stages of Rolling Loud, Post Malone's Post Fest, and MGK's EST Fest. His motto of "Never Giving Up" speaks volumes of truth as he's come back year after year creating another notch under his belt.