"Meet the Swedish Pop Star You Need to Know This Spring... Styrke's songwriting instincts rival the best of her peers." – Time Magazine

"...the Swedish singer is coming back louder than ever." – Vice/NOISEY

"...one of the country's biggest up-and-coming singer-songwriters."- Nylon

"From the dystopian interstellar synths to Styrke's space age swagger, "Borderline" plays like a Scandinavian M.I.A. covering Bad Boys theme with a bit of Coldplay's "Paradise" thrown in there for good measure." - Neon Gold

(New York, NY) Newly-signed Swedish recording artist, Tove Styrke, will make her US network television debut with a performance of "Borderline" on NBC's Late Night With Seth Meyers on March 18th. The video for “Borderline” was shot on the Nordic Island of Svalbard close to the North Pole (WATCH VIDEO) and is Styrke’s first US single which will appear on her upcoming full length US debut album, Kiddo, due out in June on RCA Records/Sony Sweden.

Following her appearance on Seth Meyers, Tove will make her SXSW debut with a variety of showcase performances in Austin.
