Christian Burghardt, an extraordinarily talented singer/songwriter, releases his debut EP entitled SAFE PLACE TO LAND today on Kemosabe Records/RCA Records. The 5 track EP is available now at all digital providers now. The Portland, Oregon native's debut single and title track for his EP, "Safe Place To Land" is an uplifting, anthemic song about letting someone know you'll always be there for them. Additionally, Burghardt will be joining the Philip Phillips fall tour as direct support. Burghardt's dates will start on September 12th in West Point, NY and continuing all the way to October 28th in St. George, UT. For more information on the tour please visit <http://christianburghardtofficial.com/>.

Christian Burghardt possesses all the qualities a fan of an acoustic-based pop artist could want: a rich, soulful voice with loads of texture; heartfelt, deeply personal lyrics; bright, nimble guitar playing, and a relatable, amiable presence to deliver it all. Veteran writer-producer Dr. Luke saw this clearly when he signed Burghardt to his Sony Music imprint Kemosabe Records in partnership with RCA Records.

On his debut EP, Burghardt worked in the studio with songwriters and producers in Los Angeles, New York, and Nashville, including Gregg Wattenberg (Train, Phillip Phillips), Derek Fuhrmann (Phillip Phillips, O.A.R.), and up-and-comer Josh Grant (Shawn Mendes).

Burghardt recently wrapped a handful of summer dates touring with Gavin DeGraw and Matt Nathanson and is scheduled for upcoming club dates this fall. More dates to be announced soon.
