AT NEW YORK'S OUTPUT (74 Wythe Avenue, BKLYN)
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 10TH (Doors 10PM)

(New York) Giorgio Moroder, the founder of disco and electronic music trailblazer will be djing on February 10th at Output (74 Wythe Avenue in Brooklyn) – doors at 10pm.

Moroder will be spinning music he's created through his illustrious career, as well presenting new songs from his first studio album in 30 years DÉJÀ VU (RCA), which received overwhelming critical acclaim. The album is also now available as a digital deluxe edition featuring 4 additional bonus tracks that were previously available only on limited edition vinyl.

What the press has been saying about Giorgio Moroder's DÉJÀ VU:

'Déjà Vu' is a dance-pop album from start to finish — a gleaming, effervescent, crafty blend of the disco that gave Mr. Moroder his first hits and the electronic dance music that has been extrapolating his ideas for decades. - The New York Times

"His hot comeback album" - Entertainment Weekly

"Sparkling" - TIME Magazine

Giorgio Moroder, disco god brings back the sound... ..booming beats...rich melodies...up-to-date technology, jittery rhythm, and songwriting craft...Moroder has created a zesty new club beats for stars as current as Sia, Charli XCX and Britney Spears..." NY Daily News

"The most influential producer electronic music has ever known." – Noisey/Vice
