

JIMMY EAT WORLD: NEW SONG

"SURE AND CERTAIN"

THE NEW SONG FROM THE ALBUM

INTEGRITY BLUES

EVERYWHERE - OCTOBER 21

Jim Adkins stopped by KROQ Los Angeles' Kevin & Bean morning show yesterday (August 30th) to debut "Sure and Certain," the first single from the bands forthcoming album, Integrity Blues.

Of the track, Jim Adkins lead singer and guitarist of Jimmy Eat World explains, "The song is about how limiting your own ideas for perfection can be. That, in constantly gunning with blinders on for achieving your ideal expectation, you are limiting your ability to appreciate all the things surrounding you in the present."

Consequence of Sound describes Jimmy Eat World as "one of the best pop punk bands of all time," and Entertainment Weekly rave "Jimmy Eat World have shared another new song: a soaring, guitar-laden entry."

Integrity Blues will be released October 21st & was produced by Justin Meldal-Johnsen (Paramore, M83, and Air).

Jimmy Eat World previously shared the track "Get Right" from the album. Consequence of Sound wrote, "Sonically, it harkens back to the band's Futures-era sound, where guitars crunched loudly and frontman Jim Adkins had a bit more snarl in his voice"
