(Los Angeles – September 22, 2016) – Multi-platinum selling rock band Kings Of Leon officially releases today the video for their album's title track "WALLS." The introspective visual was directed by Casey McGrath and produced by Josh Levine. Click here to watch it now!

Kings Of Leon's new track is featured today as Zane Lowe's "World Record of the Day" on Beats 1, Apple Music's global radio station. Listeners will be able to hear to the new song as well as an interview with the band from 9:00 am-11:00 am PST, with a repeat edition at 9:00 pm-11:00 pm PST here. Later today, the show will also be available on Apple Music's On Demand and episode tracklists. Additional information below.

The album's title track is off of the band's highly-anticipated upcoming seventh studio album WALLS, available for pre-order now. Fans who pre-order the album from the band's official webstore will receive a unique pre-sale code at checkout that will grant them early access to purchase tickets to Kings Of Leon's upcoming 2017 U.S. headlining tour. The full details of the tour will be announced soon.

Additionally, on October 6th, Kings Of Leon will be playing at the Ascend Amphitheater in their hometown of Nashville, TN. All ticket purchases to this date will automatically include a physical copy of WALLS redeemable through Ticketmaster. Tickets are available now.

Kings Of Leon's upcoming album WALLS, which New York Times says is "as new, as old, as timeless as the first" and Q Magazine states is "up there with their best," is their first album in three years after their Grammy Nominated album Mechanical Bull. The album is set for release on October 14th.
