

ENRIQUE IGLESIAS' "DUELE EL CORAZON" REACHES OVER 1 BILLION CUMULATIVE STREAMS AND OVER 2 MILLION DOWNLOADS SOLD WORLDWIDE

RECEIVES AMERICAN MUSIC AWARD FOR BEST LATIN ARTIST

(New York, New York) – This past Sunday, global superstar Enrique Iglesias wins the American Music Award for Favorite Latin Artist – the eighth in his career and the most by any artist in this category. The award comes on the heels of a whirlwind year for Enrique. His latest single, “DUELE EL CORAZON” has shattered records across the globe. The track (click here to listen) spent 14 weeks at #1 on the Hot Latin Songs chart, held the #1 spot on the Latin Pop Songs chart for 10 weeks and has over 1 billion cumulative streams and over 2 million tracks sold worldwide. The track also marks Enrique’s 14th #1 on the Dance Club Play chart, the most by any male artist. He also holds the record for the most #1 debuts on Billboard’s Latin Airplay chart.

In addition to his recent AMA win, Enrique also took home 5 awards at this year’s Latin American Music Awards for Artist of the Year, Favorite Male Pop/Rock Artist and Favorite Song of the Year, Favorite Song Pop/Rock and Favorite Collaboration for “DUELE EL CORAZON” ft. Wisin. Earlier this month, Enrique went to France to receive the NRJ Award of Honor.
