Khalid has been surrounded by music his entire life. He grew up in a military family, his mother is a singer with the Army and he was introduced to music at an early age. Khalid spent most of his childhood in Germany before moving to Watertown, NY for High School. The summer going into his senior year of High School, Khalid's family was ordered to relocate to El Paso, TX. By 18-years-old, Khalid, who is classically vocal trained, had drawn on his experiences with moving often and the unique experience of growing up having lived in two continents and parlayed them into the creation of his viral smash, "Location" which helped him to land a major label deal with RCA Records/Right Hand Music Group. Khalid released "Location" before his high school graduation and it garnered over 1.52 million plays in less than two months, along with critical praise from music tastemakers such as Pigeons & Planes, Earmilk, and more. Recently, Khalid released the music video for "Location" (Click HERE to watch). Following "Location", he released "Let's Go" (Click HERE to listen), as well as his latest track, "Hopeless" (Click HERE to listen). Khalid will be releasing his debut album via RCA Records/Right Hand Music Group in early 2017.

"Khalid's dulcet tone is like applying honey to your eardrums. There's also a unique warmth to his voice as if inhaling all the hot El Paso, Texas air has left his vocal chords with a permanent Southern drawl. The voice draws you in, but it's his songwriting that's also impressive." – DJ Booth

"Khalid is only 18, fresh from the halls of high school and making music that's full of youthful innocence and poetic passion. There's also an old soul quality to his music, a balance between past and present; a beautiful harmony." – DJ Booth

"One would expect that a mature, soulful sound would have few fans among millennials, but Khalid is here to shatter expectations." – NYLON

"'Location' got better with each listen, and it showcased a young artist with a classically great voice but a youthful, modern approach." – Pigeons & Planes

"It doesn't seem like Khalid can go wrong, and thankfully, the 18-year-old has many, many years ahead of him to prove us right." – Pigeons & Planes

"With each passing release, Khalid further cements his claim as one of 2016's most exciting new artists." – Pigeons & Planes
