Colony House has spent the last few months on the road on a headlining tour and on dates with NEEDTOBREATHE.

Their high energy show has been met with tremendous critical praise on their mostly sold-out headlining tour. The New York Times describes their music: "...full of shout-along choruses that echo arena-rock stalwarts like U2," while Creative Loafing Charlotte writes, "Colony House got the crowd moving with a set full of upbeat, pop-infused indie rock...offering plenty of sing-alongs in the process."

Since its release in January, the press has been raving about Colony House's second studio album ONLY THE LONELY which features singles "You Know It" and "You & I." Entertainment Weekly included the album on their "Must List" and describes the album "...fuses swampy blues, scuzzy garage rock, and infectious indie pop...its massive jams will sound great booming from a festival stage..." while Huffington Post – A-Sides proclaims, "Nashville's Colony House are back and better than ever...[they] have expanded their sound in so many ways..." and Noisey writes "[Only The Lonely] is a bright brand of indie-pop." Colony House performed on The TODAY Show, Late Night with Seth Meyers and CONAN in support of the release of ONLY THE LONELY, and has been spotlighted by NPR Music, Entertainment Weekly, Wall Street Journal, People Magazine, Paste, Noisey, Elle Magazine, among many others.

ONLY THE LONELY is the follow up to Colony House's debut album When I Was Younger which featured their breakthrough single "Silhouettes."

Colony House is brothers Caleb Chapman and Will Chapman, Scott Mills, and Parke Cottrell.
