[New York, NY – August 24, 2017] Whether you're #TeamIssa or #TeamLawrence, the Insecure Season 2 soundtrack has #hellamusic for your squad. RCA Records, in partnership with HBO Global Licensing, will release Music From The HBO® Original Series Insecure Season 2 on September 8th.

The digital-only release will feature new music created specifically for the series alongside previously released songs, including the Jazmine Sullivan and Bryson Tiller duet "Insecure," "Attitude" by Leikeli47, and Kari Faux's "Lowkey." The soundtrack is currently available for pre-order and includes instant downloads of the three aforementioned songs. The soundtrack also includes SZA's "Supermodel," GoldLink's "Crew," Buddy's "A Lite," Bryson Tiller's "Run Me Dry," and NAO's "Feels Like." Additional artists and full track list will be revealed soon.

The hit HBO series Insecure is known for the superb selection of music featured in the series, recently scoring 3 spots on The Hollywood Reporter's Top TV Songs chart for July: #1 SZA – "Love Galore" featuring Travis Scott, #2 GoldLink – "Crew" featuring Brent Faiyaz & Shy G, and #7 Jazmine Sullivan – "Let It Burn."

Starring Golden Globe® nominee Issa Rae, Insecure follows the friendship of two black women as they deal with their own real-life flaws while attempting to navigate different worlds and cope with an endless series of uncomfortable everyday experiences. Season 2 of the critically acclaimed series is currently airing new episodes Sunday nights on HBO, and it was recently renewed for a third season.
