After closing Tomorrowland with his new track “Pizza,” fans all over the world could not wait to get another taste of the latest Martin Garrix release. The track, debuted August 14th, played out perfectly in front of the massive Tomorrowland crowd and immediately had the internet talking, with We Rave You stating that “it will absolutely infiltrate its way into countless DJ sets and is primed to be one of his top all time tracks.”

“Pizza” is the follow up to Garrix's sensational collaborations, “Scared To Be Lonely” with Dua Lipa and “There For You” with Troye Sivan. With a busy summer filled with festivals coming to an end, Martin Garrix will wrap up his Ibiza residencies this September and begin preparations for this year's Amsterdam Dance Event where he will be hosting another two shows at Amsterdam RAI, including an all-ages show.
