(New York – August 11, 2017) Today, Matthew Koma releases an acoustic performance video of his new single “Suitcase.” CLICK HERE to watch the video now. “Suitcase” is an honest, emotive and heartfelt reflection of a relationship gone wrong. The song has remained a staple in Koma’s live performances over the last few years.

Earmilk describes “Suitcase” as a “nostalgic trip...the beautiful melding of melancholy, piano-backed production and Koma's reflective lyricism creates a touching atmosphere that might soundtrack your favorite teen romance movie or your late evening music listening trips....Sincerity runs deep in all of Matthew Koma's music, and ‘Suitcase’ is further proof of this fact.”

Matthew Koma is one of the most accomplished writers behind numerous smash hits including Zedd’s “Spectrum,” and GRAMMY-winning hit “Clarity.” “Suitcase” is the follow up to “Dear Ana” Koma’s critically acclaimed single -- Billboard describes it as “...hopeful in its musicality, though heavy in atmosphere and lyrical sentiment, People calls the track a “poignant, synth-tinged ballad” and Fuse raves “the singer-songwriter-producer is getting more personal. His new single sees him leading an important and deeply personal conversation.”
