“In a world that needs more visible examples of strong, badass women, the 22-year-old Chicago native comes through as a femme-bot on a futuristic mission for vengeance....Romiti is one of the biggest artists to keep an eye on in 2018.” -- PAPER

Speaking about her futuristic visual for "Never Thought" Toni tells PAPER, "This video was a ton of fun to film! DC Young Fly and the female model symbolize the materialistic, superficial aspects of love. DC is really willing to ride for his girl, as he jumps in front of her to save her from the laser blast. Too bad I incinerate the girl anyway right after I blast DC. My character's mission in the video is a show of pure devotion; I'm a cyborg warrior on a mission to get my man back. My sci-fi man is trapped inside of a crystal in DC Young Fly's mansion. I'm willing to travel across the ocean to get my man back, and I'm even willing to kill to get my man back. It's also dope because the guy in the video is actually my boyfriend in real life. What would you do for love?"

The release comes in the middle of Toni's national tour supporting Ty Dolla $ign on his "Don't Judge Me Tour." See full list of Toni Romiti's remaining tour dates below:

About Toni Romiti

Armed with a mouth that'd make Sharon Stone in Casino blush, Toni Romiti is a powerhouse voice that takes no prisoners, and attitude for days. The Chicago-born and Los Angeles-based songstress serves up raw, raucous, and real R&B fueled by hip-hop attitude and pop palatability on her 2018 major label debut EP, Tomboy [RCA Records]. The budding superstar found herself at a crossroad back in 2014 when she achieved a full basketball scholarship for South Carolina Upstate. At the pinnacle of her basketball career, she penned a song titled "Nothin On Me" which went on to be a breakout single, uploaded to Soundcloud —amassing over 90 million streams to date. Toni then knew that she needed to make a decision. Having found passion in songwriting – she moved to Los Angeles to focus on her artist career. "I want girls to know it's okay to be arrogant, feel dominant, and have a fucking opinion that matters," she exclaims. Toni's tracks have a "conversational" style with no holds-barred or punches pulled.
