(New York, New York) – DJ duo Lost Kings release their newest track "When We Were Young" feat. Norma Jean Martine (Click Here To Listen). The track, which is produced by Lost Kings and Nikolai Potthoff, is available now at all digital providers via Disruptor Records / RCA Records.

The duo stated, "When we were young, really is inspired by the carefree Neverland like feeling you have when you are a child growing up. LA is our home and it's always felt like a Neverland to us, it reminds us of the times spent running around with our friends playing in our neighborhoods."

2017 was a big year for Lost Kings as they were named Google Play's #1 artist to watch and released some of their biggest hits to date. Most recently, the guys have released their hit single "First Love" ft. Sabrina Carpenter, which currently has over 25 million streams on Spotify and their follow up track "Don't Call" which has nearly 10 million streams on Spotify. In addition, they released "Look At Us Now" ft. Ally Brooke and A$AP Ferg, "Quit You" ft. Tinashe and "Phone Down" ft. Emily Warren. All the tracks have reached nearly 125 million streams combined on Spotify.

The duo spent last year playing festivals all over the world including Ultra Music Festival, Ever After Music Festival, Escapade Music Festival, Milwaukee Summerfest, Ultra Asia,

Electric Zoo Festival, Dancefestopia, KAABOO Del Mar and more. Coming up, Lost Kings will continue their residency at the Wynn Las Vegas, play various spot dates and festivals across the US and Canada. For more dates & tickets please visit:
