“LOST MY MIND” was produced by Mike “Scribz” Riley and written by Elley Duhé.

On the release of “LOST MY MIND” Elley says: “‘Lost My Mind’ is about human connection. In the song, I’m pleading to the outside world and people in my life to not abandon me or think less of me because I may be going through a dark period. The point I’m trying to get across in the song is that something as simple as having compassion for someone is important even if you don’t understand what they’re going through.”

The track follows Elley’s recent feature on Kid Ink’s “Us” from the Uncle Drew Original Motion Picture Soundtrack. It also follows the releases of “AIN’T NO FEELING” and “Can You Touch,” of which the latter was produced by Rahki (Kendrick Lamar, Eminem, Mac Miller) and appeared on Spotify’s “New Music Friday” playlist upon release. It is also featured on NOW That’s What I Call Music Vol. 63. “Can You Touch” is both a poignant and empowering song that “has soul and rhythm that’ll transport you to another galaxy” according to NYLON. Hot New Hip Hop describes, “[the] lyrics are bursting with personality...her melodies often go in unexpected directions, speaking to her strength as a songwriter.” Click here to listen.

ABOUT ELLEY DUHÉ

Growing up in the small coastal town of Daulphin Island, Alabama, Elley Duhé always felt she was different from other kids her age. This pushed her towards the comfort of music and inspired a life-long passion for singing and songwriting. At the age of 14 Elley wrote her first song with a guitar she received as a gift from her father. She would gather with her family and have jam sessions with her dad and uncles, finding inspiration to create music from the deep southern art, food, and culture that surrounded her. Throughout her later teenage years, Elley began playing for live audiences and traveled extensively throughout Nashville, Austin and L.A. to perfect her songwriting skills. With her uplifting messages, powerful vocals and the upcoming release of her debut EP, Elley is an artist to watch in 2018.
