(New York, New York – July 20, 2018) – Los Angeles based DJ duo Lost Kings release their latest track "Stuck" feat. Swedish recording artist Tove Styrke today (Click here to listen). The track, which was produced by the pair, is available now at all digital providers via Disruptor Records/RCA Records.

Earlier this summer, Lost Kings released "When We Were Young" feat. Norma Jean Martine, which has over 10 million streams on Spotify. Acid Stag said of the track, "if you've been looking for an anthem to soundtrack your summer, these guys have got you covered," while ThisSongSlaps claims it, "...is The Song Of Summer!"

Lost Kings have risen up through the ranks of new producer talents gaining over 200 million total streams worldwide and have had 14 #1s on Hype Machine and securing a longstanding Las Vegas residency at The Wynn.

2017 was a big year for Lost Kings as they were named Google Play's #1 artist to watch and released some of their biggest hits to date. Consistently releasing music throughout 2017 and 2018 the guys have over 150 million streams on Spotify for their tracks "When We Was Young" feat. Norma Jean Martine, "First Love" ft. Sabrina Carpenter, "Don't Call," "Look At Us Now" ft. Ally Brooke and A$AP Ferg, "Quit You" ft. Tinashe and "Phone Down" ft. Emily Warren.

The duo continue to play some of the biggest music festivals all over the world including Ultra Music Festival, Ever After Music Festival, Escapade Music Festival, Milwaukee Summerfest, Ultra Croatia, Ultra Asia, Electric Zoo Festival, Dancefestopia, KAABOO Del Mar and more.

Swedish recording artist Tove Styrke recently released her album Sway via Sony Music Sweden/RCA Records, which garnered tons of critical acclaim including Pitchfork, which stated the album is "one of the most exuberant albums in recent memory," TIME praised that Tove is “cleverly marking out her own pop territory,” and Rolling Stone noted, “the sound of someone who knows she’s worth our time.” Following her U.S. tour with Lorde this past spring and a European run with Katy Perry, Tove announced her fall 2018 North American headline tour in support of her album, which kicks off in Toronto on September 29th and hits major cities like New York City, Philadelphia, Chicago and Los Angeles.
