What the Press is Saying About Elle King & SHAKE THE SPIRIT:

“Blues, soul and 1950s roots show clearly through the tautly constructed songs” -The New York Times Fall Preview

“Best Badass...Her charisma and the songs’ catchiness made the set delectable, and the possibility of new music from her tantalizing— Rolling Stone (live show review at Seven Seas Festival)

Praise for single “Shame”:

“The song, a shuttering, shimmying blast of pop ...a brazen invitation to give in to temptation...she sings in a near growl.” – Rolling Stone

“...the soulful Elle King captured hearts across the world with her sassy, lovelorn ...‘Ex’s & Oh’s’... ‘Shame’ (is) a brassy tune about bad-girl antics...unstoppable series of hooks, as if daring us to feel shame for loving a song this wickedly good.” – Paper

“If you thought the Black Keys had cornered the market on blues-based stompers, she’s here to change your mind.” – Refinery 29

(New York – September 21, 2018) Three-time Grammy-nominated and platinum-selling artist Elle King today released a brand-new song — “Naturally Pretty Girls” — from her forthcoming second studio album SHAKE THE SPIRIT, which is out October 19th via RCA Records. Elle self-produced, played bass, and co-wrote “Naturally Pretty Girls,” a salty track about being an atypical beauty, with Ben Gibbard of Death Cab for Cutie.

Elle recently released a short trailer for fans about the making of SHAKE THE SPIRIT, offering more detail on the emotionally challenging, yet artistically productive period of her life. – check it out HERE.

Speaking about the album, Elle explains: “I decided to call it ‘Shake The Spirit’ because I was shaken to the core over the last year and a half. I was literally talking to ghosts. But making the album not only changed my life, it saved my life. It’s like when you see somebody who is struggling, you want to shake them. Putting this record out is like shaking myself awake.”

Jon Pareles of The New York Times describes Elle as “a sassy, hard-drinking, love-’em-and-leave-’em hellion with bad tattoos and a broad pedigree across rock, pop and country. She has Adele’s determination and Joan Jett’s stomp, Brenda Lee’s high-voiced bite and some AC/DC shriek.” Rolling Stone writes of her set at the Seven Seas Festival earlier this month: “Her charisma and the songs’ catchiness made the set delectable,” and The Kansas City Star adds: “riveting... King growled like the rockabilly pioneer Wanda Jackson...and evoked the R&B great Etta James.” Elle will be joined on tour by special guest The Cordovas. Visit www.elleking.com for more details.

The video for “Shame” can be seen HERE. Elle co-wrote “Shame” with Tim Pagnotta who produced the single. About Elle King:

Elle’s debut album Love Stuff, a sultry, badass mix of rock and roll, blues, and country, with a twinge of pop, features the breakthrough single “Ex’s & Oh’s,” which earned her two Grammy nominations and was certified double platinum. The track, about leaving behind a string of brokenhearted exes, hit No. 1 on Billboard’s Hot Rock Songs Chart, and topped the AAA, Hot AC, and Alternative Radio charts, leading King to become the second female artist in 18 years to reach No. 1 at the latter format. She was also featured on Dierks Bentley’s Grammy-nominated No. 1 Country Airplay hit “Different For Girls” (she performed it with Bentley at the CMA Awards and took home an award for “Musical Event of the Year”). King also performed for President Obama in honor of Mavis Staples at the 2016 Kennedy Center Honors.
