Set To Tour North America Starting In November With Special Guests Ocean Park Standoff

(New York, New York – September 28, 2018) – Ireland’s breakthrough, UK platinum-selling band, Kodaline releases their highly anticipated new album Politics of Living today via Sony Music UK/RCA Records.

On Politics of Living, Kodaline teams up with some of the hottest production and writing talent imaginable including hitmaker supreme Steve Mac (Ed Sheeran, Liam Payne), pop guru Johnny Coffey (Rag’N’ Bone Man, Beyoncé), Jonas Jeberg (Dizzee Rascal, Kylie Minogue), Stephen Harris (Miles Kane, Kaiser Chiefs) as well as long-time collaborator Johnny McDaid (P!NK).

After a blockbuster summer including playing to a sold out crowd of 21,000 fans at Dublin’s Malahide Castle in June, as well as sets at the Isle Of Wight and TRNSMT festivals, Kodaline is set to tour North America with special guests Ocean Park Standoff this fall. The 16-date run will start in Los Angeles on November 14th and end in Philadelphia on December 8th. For tickets and more information please visit: <http://www.kodaline.com/>.

Politics of Living will be the first collection of new music since 2015’s Coming Up For Air, which went Gold in the UK. The band’s debut album, In A Perfect World has sold over a million copies worldwide and imprinted itself on the nation’s consciousness with streaming figures well into the 100s of millions. On Vevo the band’s videos have had over 200 million views, and they have sold over a million singles. Kodaline was featured on Kygo’s 2016 global hit “Raging” and most recently released their I Wouldn’t Be EP which featured their massive UK single “Brother.” Their music has been featured in several television, film and ad placements including Chicago PD (NBC), Grey’s Anatomy (ABC), Modern Family (ABC), So You Think You Can Dance (FOX) American Idol (ABC) and so much more.

Kodaline are - singer Steve Garrigan, guitarist Mark Prendergast, bassist Jason Boland and drummer Vinny May.
