Rolling Stone wrote of her Austin City Limits live set: "Elle King is a little bit country, a little bit rock n' roll, but ultimately, she's punk as fuck" and at the Seven Seas Festival, she was voted Rolling Stone's "Best Badass...Her charisma and the songs' catchiness made the set delectable." Variety wrote of her Philadelphia Shake The Spirit tour date "...King churned the clotted cream of punkish country, raw R&B, crotchety rock and deep blues into rich, buttery musical drama with her band, the Brethren.. (she) belted, crooned, purred, sauntered and swaggered her way through a tautly rocking set...one thing became very clear: nearly every song that came before (the finale) was equally contagious, catty-cool, and hit-worthy."

Elle's brand new single "Baby Outlaw" debuted #1 most added on the AAA chart and is currently Top 20 on the chart. Watch her performance of "Baby Outlaw" The Late Late Show with James Corden HERE.

Elle King's second studio album SHAKE THE SPIRIT was released in the fall of 2018 to critical acclaim and massive radio success. Lead single "Shame" topped the Triple A Radio chart at #1 for two consecutive weeks, and with her fourth radio #1 single "Shame," Elle became the only act in history to have scored #1s on all 4 radio formats. READ the Billboard chart story here. She celebrated the record-breaking news with her fans on Instagram. King performed "Shame" on Good Morning America with an interview with Robin Roberts, Nightline, Live with Kelly and Ryan, and The Late Show with Stephen Colbert. Jon Pareles of The New York Times describes Elle as "a sassy, hard-drinking, love-'em-and-leave-'em hellion with bad tattoos and a broad pedigree across rock, pop and country. She has Adele's determination and Joan Jett's stomp, Brenda Lee's high-voiced bite and some AC/DC shriek." The Kansas City Star also wrote: "riveting... King growled like the rockabilly pioneer Wanda Jackson...and evoked the R&B great Etta James." Her debut album Love Stuff, a sultry, badass mix of rock and roll, blues, and country, with a twinge of pop, was released in February 2015. Her breakthrough single "Ex's & Oh's," propelled Elle into the mainstream spotlight, and earned her two Grammy nominations and was certified double platinum. The track, about leaving behind a string of brokenhearted exes, hit No. 1 on Billboard's Hot Rock Songs Chart, and topped the AAA, Hot AC, and Alternative Radio charts, leading King to become the second female artist in 18 years to reach No. 1 at the latter format. She was also featured on Dierks Bentley's Grammy-nominated No. 1 Country Airplay hit "Different For Girls" (she performed it with Bentley at the CMA Awards and took home an award for "Musical Event of the Year"). King also performed for President Obama in honor of Mavis Staples at the 2016 Kennedy Center Honors.

What the Press is Saying About Elle King's SHAKE THE SPIRIT:

“Elle King’s Raw Revelation, the singer channels real trauma into bracing retro rock....King came on like a butt-kicking rocker heroine wailing through her pain...(on her) impressive second album. The sound is vintage, a hard-won swagger is brave and brand new.” – Rolling Stone

“Elle King’s glittery gold boots were made for stompin’ and that’s just what she does on the hip-swiveling ‘Shake the Spirit,’ her sassy yet surprisingly vulnerable sophomore album....King and her tell-all tone are what elevate Shake the Spirit ...to a truly cathartic talk of bad girl gone...better.” – Entertainment Weekly

“Blues, soul and 1950s roots show clearly through the tautly constructed songs.” – New York Times

“One of the Most Anticipated Albums of Fall 2018...a cathartic, rough-edged diary entry of a project that couldn't be more personal...her most vulnerable album yet”- Billboard
