"Energy" was released earlier this year and was declared a "summer anthem" by FADER and a "dancefloor-ready track" by HYPEBEAST. In May, BURNS and A$AP Rocky surprised everyone with a performance of "Energy" to a crowd of 45,000 fans at EDC Las Vegas.

"This song is everything I'm about musically. I wanted to make something that sounded organic and authentic and that people can dance to. I'm very proud of it!" – BURNS

ABOUT BURNS

BURNS, a British artist and producer based in Los Angeles, has quietly become an influential force in pop. As an in-demand producer, his past work encompasses Platinum-certified songs for Britney Spears and 2018 releases for Liam Payne, French Montana and Johnny Yukon, whilst his upcoming production credits show a host of exciting projects in the pipeline.

As well as his recent hit alongside ASAP Rocky and Sabrina Claudio, his own artist project featured the 2018 smash "Hands On Me" with Latin pop superstar Maluma's and the boys of Rae Sremmurd. There's also the UK-influenced "Angel" and the more club-oriented "Worst" featuring Johnny Yukon, a frequent collaborator of BURNS'. Simultaneously to his packed studio time, he hosts explosive residencies in cities like Las Vegas, Miami and LA, in addition to igniting Worldwide festival stages from Lollapalooza to Tomorrowland.

Influenced by everything from childhood heroes Daft Punk to A$AP Rocky and Lil Yachty, he veers between electronic expanse, hip-hop energy, and pop power with ease. BURNS' productions represent the idiosyncrasies and intricacies of Los Angeles, the city he calls home; from the requisite romance and rawness to everything in-between; by naturally bringing a fresh vibe to modern and popular music, BURNS is already resonating far beyond the City of Angels...
