[August 1, 2019 - New York, NY] Today, Cousin Stizz announces his new album Trying To Find My Next Thrill is due out August 14th via RCA Records. The album includes the previously released single "Perfect" featuring City Girls and will include additional features from Freddie Gibbs, Smino, $ean Wire, and Leven Kali. The follow up to 2017's One Night Only, the new album marks a sharp and menacing return set to cement Stizz as one of hip-hop's most infectious and exciting new voices.

Along with the album announcement, Stizz shares a new song and accompanying video. "STP," produced by New York-based DJ/producer duo Take A Daytrip, is directed by JMP and documents a day in the life of Stizz as he prepares for a fashion show, surrounded by money, cars, and friends.

Watch and listen to "STP" above, read more about Cousin Stizz below, and stay tuned for more from the rapper coming soon.

About Cousin Stizz:

27-year-old Boston bred rapper Cousin Stizz is cementing himself as one of the top up-and-comers in hip-hop. Born and raised in a rough part of Boston's Dorchester neighborhood, Stizz was forced to mature quickly. At the age of 13, Stizz was faced with a harsh reality when his close friend was killed by a gunshot wound, causing Stizz to misbehave. His mother then had to give him an ultimatum; he could either attend military school or high school in the suburbs to stay out of trouble. Stizz chose the latter, which served as both a huge culture shock and turning point in his life. While there, Cousin Stizz learned a lot about himself and how to adapt to others and his different surroundings. His schooling and experiences, which he calls the best four years of his life, greatly helped to shape his musical journey.

As a teenager, Cousin Stizz enjoyed freestyling and liked to rap for fun, but didn't think much about making it a life career until his friend Michael Christmas started to become popular in the hip hop community. With the inspiration from his friend's success, he owed it to himself and his family and friends to take his talent seriously and started recording music. This led to the release of his first mixtape Suffolk County in June 2015, which has received over 12 million listens on SoundCloud alone. He followed up his debut mixtape with MONDA, a mixtape dedicated to and named after his good friend who passed away from cancer. His latest, 2017 RCA label debut One Night Only, proved be worthy of all the anticipation with features from some of the biggest names in hip-hop like Offset and G-Eazy.
