Critical Praise:

"Eerie, bright and hyper-violent, ["Envy Me"] revels in the dichotomy of Calboy's delivery and is one of the reasons it's an off-kilter hit." - Rolling Stone

"Not only had Calboy improved his melodic delivery and descriptive storytelling, but the track's somber piano-driven beat felt like the perfect accompaniment for his emotive vocals." - Pitchfork

About Calboy:

A self-taught singer and musician, Calboy started making rap music at the age of 12, influenced by the sounds of drill heroes like Lil Durk with poppier fare like Ed Sheeran. As he began to master making his own instrumentals and songs on Pro Tools, Calboy became involved with YOUmedia, the Chicago public arts program with notable alumni like Chance The Rapper. At the age of 16, Calboy started the Paper Gang Inc. imprint, with some help from his mother, and eventually his music began to catch on in Chicago, reaching the ears of G Herbo, who boosted Calboy's single. In August 2018, Calboy shared "Envy Me," which became a Billboard Top 40 hit off the strength of a viral dance craze. Now signed to Polo Grounds/RCA Records, Calboy is ready to take the next step on the ladder to stardom.
