About Flora Cash

Flora Cash saw major success with their #1 single “You’re Somebody Else.” Forbes Magazine called it “brilliant” and said it “is arguably the most intriguing song on radio this past year.” The track has amassed over 82 million combined streams, hit #1 at Alternative and Triple A Radio, and is one of the most Shazamed Alternative records of last year. Last fall they performed the song on The Late Late Show With James Corden and Last Call With Carson Daly and earlier this year on Live! With Kelly and Ryan. “You’re Somebody Else” was recently featured in a Fox Sports Thanksgiving feature on former NFL player Tim Green’s diagnosis with ALS and was also used in a Movistar commercial in Mexico which has also been picked up through Central and South America. The husband-and-wife duo emerged when Minneapolis-native Cole Randall uploaded his music to Soundcloud and caught the attention of Sweden-based Shpresa Lleshaj who stumbled upon his account and started leaving comments under the songs. Facebook messages gave way to an introductory phone conversation, which snowballed into marathon Skype sessions, which eventually led to their marriage. The mystique of the music offset the exuberance of the union between them. The duo stitched together a singular style from threads of personal anxiety, struggle, and ultimately triumph. In 2017, their full-length debut, Nothing Lasts Forever (And It’s Fine), attracted widespread tastemaker praise, including a coveted 9-out-of-10 score from Earmilk as well as acclaim from Noisey, Paste, Wonderland Magazine, Elmore Magazine and The Line of Best Fit. Additionally, the band released their EP Press in March.
