[New York, NY – May 13, 2019] Today, Grammy-nominated Squaaash Club/RCA Records recording artist GoldLink releases a new song. "Zulu Screams," produced by P2J, finds the DMV artist teaming up with British-Nigerian producer and singer Maleek Berry for an infectious summer anthem. The song also features additional vocals by BiBi Bourelly, Odie, and Zapaterro Strongman of UK group LDNC.

"Zulu Screams" was featured as Zane Lowe's World Record on his Beats 1 radio show earlier today and is GoldLink's second release of the year, following the January release of "Got Muscle" featuring Peewee Longway and WavelQ. The new song arrives ahead of his performance at Brooklyn's AFROPUNK Festival in August and much more still to come from GoldLink this summer.

Hear "Zulu Screams" feat. Maleek Berry above and stay tuned for more from GoldLink coming soon.

More about Goldlink:

Where the intersections of the DMV (DC, Maryland and Virginia) collide, GoldLink is a direct product. Washington, D.C., and the broader DMV area, have long been treated like a musical Rubik's cube. There are bursting, Technicolor patches of musical brilliance, but the component parts never line up in a way that made sense to those on the outside. GoldLink is not interested in spelling out all the nuances of his hometown; what he does aim to do is synthesize his environment's litany of influences and inspirations into something unique, singular, and all together his own.

With his debut studio album At What Cost (Squaaash Club/RCA)--helmed by the monstrous single "Crew"--released in March 2017, he's done just that. By merging the sensibilities of go-go with the African diaspora, he's done what hip-hop has done from its inception: repurpose what's available into something magical.

The success of At What Cost and now Triple Platinum single "Crew" saw GoldLink achieve a number of career firsts in the past few months -- from his Grammy nomination for Best Rap/Sung Collaboration to the iHeartMedia Music Awards nomination for Best New Hip-Hop Artist to his BET Awards nomination for Best New Artist.
