“4 AM In NY” is both written and produced by bLack pARty. The video was shot in New York through the lens of a night out on the streets and in the subways of New York.

Earlier this month bLack pARty made his official return with the launch of “No Complaints” ft. DMP Jefe, which premiered on Complex and announced his signing to Childish Gambino’s label Wolf + Rothstein partnership with RCA Records. Endless Summer will be his first official release under the newly inked deal.

Listen to “4 AM In NY” and keep an eye out for more music coming soon from bLack pARty.

About bLack pARty:

In similar fashion, artist, producer, songwriter, and multi-instrumentalist bLack pARty, born Malik Flint, absorbs, imbibes, and celebrates a wide swath of styles, spanning R&B, hip-hop, psychedelic soul, and self-described “tropical funk”—his own inimitable infusion of reggae, dancehall, and tropical tones.

bLack pARty began as a producer, first working with Kari Faux in 2013 in what has become a long-standing producer-artist collaboration. He emerged as a solo artist in 2016 with the debut of his critically acclaimed project, MANGO, which went viral from its “Best View” visual and received praise from the likes of Complex, Vibe and many more. Since then he’s gone on to work on Childish Gambino’s Awaken! My Love as well as music for Insecure, Dear White People, and Atlanta in addition to executive producing Faux’s Lost en Los Angeles.

Fast forward to 2019, The Arkansas-born and Los Angeles-based aural alchemist returns and integrates a lifetime of music obsession into unpredictable, undeniable, and unshakable anthems on his forthcoming full-length debut, Endless Summer [Wolf + Rothstein/RCA Records].
