Having recently wrapped his US run of tour dates supporting girl in red Isaac is thrilled to join the European leg which kicks off later this month.

This summer the 16-year-old budding artist released his highly anticipated EP Balloons Don't Float Here and has garnered the attention of notable tastemakers like Zane Lowe, The FADER, Ones To Watch and Hillydilly, which stated: “it's only a matter of time until he gets worldwide recognition.” Hailing from Cape Cod, Massachusetts, Isaac’s EP melds complex sounds and atmospheric, beat-driven production to create melodic and introspective tracks. The unique brand of distorted ballads combined with lush, multilayered dream-pop harmonies and malleable, heady synth drops creates a genre-bending EP. Balloons Don't Float Here is a culmination of perceptive, teenage melancholy that relays the hitting subject matters of loss, longing, romance, and what used to be.
