This is the follow-up to Audrey’s song “Fake Heartbreak” that she released on October 31st along with news that she signed with RCA Records. “Fake Heartbreak” was given a warm critics’ welcome, with Idolator calling it “soulful” and Ones to Watch praising it’s “gorgeous bluesy vibe.”

“Change Your Heart” which, along with “Fake Heartbreak”, will be included on Audrey’s next EP due out in the new year was co-written by Audrey Mika and Amisha Mallick Sarkar and produced by Midi Jones.

Audrey Mika says, ““Change Your Heart” is about being the person that makes someone else want to change and be a better person for you. You are the person that makes them change their mind even if they think that’s crazy”

Hailing from the Bay Area, 19 year-old Audrey Mika first rose to prominence as a YouTube sensation whose following has continued to grow with her unique covers of popular hits. She has amassed over 1 million YouTube subscribers who flock to check out her original material such as her two prior projects, 2018’s “Are We There Yet” and 2019’s “Level Up”, which she recorded entirely on GarageBand. She’s been called a “rising star” by Paper Magazine and her original music was praised by Ones To Watch who called it “incredible”.
