DIFFERENT WORLD ALBUM RIAA CERTIFIED GOLD IN THE US

[New York, NY – December 27, 2019] Multi-platinum selling, Norwegian artist, DJ, producer, Alan Walker releases his brand new single “Alone Pt. II” today via MER Recordings/Sony Music Sweden/RCA Records. On the release, Walker is joined by pop wonder Ava Max on vocals. The single is accompanied by its official music video which is the second installment of a new World of Walker video trilogy. The storyline continues from “On My Way” ft. Sabrina Carpenter and Farruko, released earlier this year.

On the release Walker says: “I’m so thrilled to share my new single “Alone Pt. II” with the world! The track and music video is the follow-up to my single “On My Way.” I’m looking forward to see the reactions from Walkers around the world, and what they think about the next episode in this “World of Walker” trilogy. They have been patiently waiting for new music, so I’m happy to get this one out before the new year. And last but not least - Ava did an absolutely amazing job on this one! I’ve been a fan of her for quite a while, and couldn’t be more excited about now being able to release this collab together.”

In addition to releasing “Alone Pt. II,” Walker’s 2018 album, Different World has reached RIAA certified Gold status in the US amassing over 2 billion streams and video views.

The Walker Excavations

In conjunction with the single release, on December 18th, Alan Walker launched the first part of 'The Walker Excavations' – a digital escape room-style platform which takes place in the World of Walker universe. Fans will play as the characters from the ongoing music video trilogy ("On My Way," "Alone Pt. II" and an upcoming single to be released in 2020) and will have to find clues to solve puzzles and advance through the rooms. The storyline will follow that of the music videos and a total of 5 rooms will be released over the course of the trilogy campaign.
