What the Press is Saying About Winnetka Bowling League:

“Grammy-winning singer-songwriter Matthew Koma is raw and honest, possessing a dry sense of humor that is reflected in both his songs and his mannerisms. Coming from punk rock roots and branching out into hip hop and EDM, his new band, Winnetka Bowling League, is the perfect pairing of deep lyrical content and alternative rock melodies.” – V Magazine

“infectious, hook-laden songs” – The Ringer

“Los Angeles’ Winnetka Bowling League makes music that sounds as good on indie rock playlists as it would on alternative radio. There’s a little MGMT in the sound...from the hooky synth lead to a chorus that leaps out of the speakers. Winnetka Bowling League are a band that’s easy to imagine finding big audiences...” – Uproxx

“[“On The 5” is] an undeniably anthemic pop song about the thoroughfare connecting Southern California and our less fortunate citizens to the north... An L.A. song through and through, it certainly sounds like a hit.” – The Los Angeles Times
