(Los Angeles, CA – April 2nd, 2020) – Trailblazing new artist Isaac Dunbar releases his new track “comme des garçons (like the boys)” via RCA Records. The song is written by Isaac and Rory Adams and produced by Isaac. Listen HERE. His forthcoming EP isaac's insects is set to be released next Thursday, April 9th.

E! News included Isaac in their Next-Gen of Pop article calling him an artist you need to know and he was included in Idolator's 40 Artists To Watch In 2020. “comme des garçons (like the boys)” follows Isaac's previously released tracks “scorton's creek” which Idolator called “His Best Single Yet”, “makeup drawer” which PAPER exclusively premiered the video, “isaac's insects” where Billboard called him “the real deal”, “onion boy” and “body” which led TIME magazine to call his voice “lovely” and stated that he has “a keen ear — and intuition — for turning pop into relatable confessions.”

About Isaac Dunbar

The 17-year-old budding artist supported girl in red on her North American and European run of show dates last fall and released his highly anticipated EP balloons don't float here last summer. It garnered the attention of notable tastemakers like Zane Lowe, The FADER, Ones To Watch, and Hillydilly, which stated: “it's only a matter of time until he gets worldwide recognition.” Hailing from Cape Cod, Massachusetts, Isaac's EP melds complex sounds and atmospheric, beat-driven production to create melodic and introspective tracks. The unique brand of distorted ballads combined with lush, multilayered dream-pop harmonies and malleable, heady synth drops creates a genre-bending EP. Isaac is looking forward to releasing his new EP under RCA Records this spring and will hit the road on his first headlining tour later this year.
