(March 26, 2020) – Memphis based singer/songwriter/producer Healy releases the music video for his latest track, "Nikes On" today (watch here). The video sees Healy moving around the stunning landscape of Long Pine, CA in his Nike sneakers while keeping focus on the track's stellar lyrics.

"I hadn't lived the life I needed to live to finish writing Nikes On until August of 2019. The song centers around the feeling of time running away from you," says Healy. "It serves as a reminder to be self-aware and present because time never stops, and fighting it is wasting it. I wanted to pair this stern, surreal personification of time with promising and uplifting production to convey a sense of harmony and acceptance of time. Time is yours for the taking, not the other way around."

Earlier this year, Healy released the music video for his track "Reckless" which was featured on his debut album Sublux and has over 26 million streams on Spotify. Most recently Healy reached over 1 million followers on his Spotify account.

Last fall, Healy released "Tuscon," which has garnered over 1 million combined audio streams. Keep checking for more music from Healy coming soon.

About Healy:

Performing under only his last name, Healy embodies cardinal themes of his work like self-discovery and non-dualism. He released his debut album Sublux in 2017 in the wake of his second year of medical school. The album has nearly 60 million audio streams. The lead single, "Unwind," caught the internet on its heels, helping to establish Healy's fixed presence as a promising multidimensional artist in a mercurial musical climate. His work is a fearless transgression—a tonal gradient with origins in classic and indie rock, soul, and Memphis rap.
