[January 18, 2019 – New York, NY] Leikeli47 has announced her Acrylic Tour following the release of her latest LP Acrylic available now via Hardcover / RCA. The tour kicks off March 18th in Kansas City, MO and will land in 25 more cities across the US and Canada with stops in Brooklyn, Chicago, Atlanta and LA before concluding on April 26th in San Diego, CA (full tour dates can be found below) w/ tickets on sale today.

The announcement comes on the heels of the new music video for "Tic Boom" (which premiered on the hit TV show Grown-ish). The video sees an army of Noire-clad women entrenched in a face-to-face standoff with an opposing generic group on a stark white background. Of the video 47 says: "These young women are in a face off with their inner fears; that's why it sometimes may look like they're engaging in a face off with themselves. It's about facing whatever your Goliath is and chopping its head off. That's what Tic Boom is about. It's about owning your moment, mastery, and doing it afraid if you have to."

The release of Acrylic marks a new level of notoriety and critical acclaim for the multi-talented artist. Called "...a hood-chick lit masterpiece more colorful than a rack of nail polish." by NPR, it was also named one their Best Albums of 2019 and received placement in Pitchfork's and Paper Magazine's year-end lists. Released in 3 parts, Acrylic chronicles the beloved ritual of getting your nails done. Of the album 47 says "Acrylic is a hard substance and I feel this is one of my harder records to date. It speaks to how hard times don't break you, they make you. We have this saying that when you smell acrylic, you know just where you are."

"Despite near-total anonymity, Leikeli47 is becoming a resounding voice of black womanhood."
- PITCHFORK

"Leikeli's approach isn't void of pain, but it's a reminder that there is more to black life than trauma"
- NOISEY

"...there really aren't many people right now (or ever) crating a catalog like Leikeli's." - BROOKLYN
VEGAN
