“‘Honeywheat’ is a sensual song that couldn’t have come at a more simple moment,” says Ivana. “A box of honeywheat pancake mix and some lustful thoughts gives the song its body, a feeling of wanting someone and finally being in their sweet space and presence.”

Speaking on the concept of the video, director Alexandra Gavillet states: “The sensuality and intimacy of ‘Honeywheat’ immediately made me think about what it means to be a Goddess, and how to own your Queendom in true VanJess fashion, and I thought it would be incredible to honor women in a moving painting concept, inspired by the early paintings in the Renaissance and Baroque era of art.

Fans can catch VanJess perform “Honeywheat” and more from the album Pitchfork describes as a “captivating fusion of 1990s R&B with contemporary electronic touches,” at the 2019 Essence Fest in New Orleans.
