(New York, New York – September 4, 2020) – Just in time for the holiday weekend, GASHI releases the deluxe version of his highly buzzed about album 1984 via RCA Records. The deluxe version of the album features two new tracks, "Running Away" ft. Devault & Seb Torgus and "Never Give Up On Me" ft. G-Eazy (listen to the whole album here). Also released today is the 80's retro style music video for "Running Away" which pays homage to Gary Numan's "Cars" video and sees Gashi and company cruising down Sunset Blvd in his 1984 Rolls Royce Corniche.

Just last week GASHI released the music video for his current single, "Mama" ft. Sting which Billboard called the track, "a throwback groove." The track is featured on the 1984 album which US Weekly called your, "summer soundtrack" while POPDUST said "1984, with its lush instrumentals and sleek '80s synths, certifies GASHI as a budding pop star rather than just another rapper." The album also featured love from UPROXX, VMAN, XXL, Hip Hop DX, Young Hollywood and more while Forbes claimed Gashi is "a rising star."

In August, GASHI performed his first ever livestream performance featuring tracks from the 1984 album (watch the performance here). Directly following his performance, GASHI premiered his documentary GASHI: Now You Know (watch here).
