SAYGRACE has enjoyed over 152 million streams of her debut hit single “Boys Ain’t Shit.”

Last week, SAYGRACE released a new version of “Boys Ain’t Shit” featuring Flo Milli. Flo Milli joins the list of powerful young female artists including Tate McRae, Audrey Mika and Becky G who collaborated previously with SAYGRACE on versions of the hit single. Check those out HERE.

About SAYGRACE:

SAYGRACE’s debut hit single “Boys Ain’t Shit” has charted on the Spotify Viral Charts in over 25+ markets around the world including Top 15 Global and Top 5 on the viral charts in the US and Canada. The single has also been trending on TikTok with over at 1.3 Million + video creations and over 152 million streams globally of the solo version plus collaborations with Tate McRae, Audrey Mika and Becky G. SAYGRACE released her critically-acclaimed debut EP The Defining Moments of SAYGRACE: Girlhood, Fuckboys & Situationships released earlier this year to rave reviews from NPR, Fader, Idolator, Billboard, Consequence of Sound, and more. The Brisbane, Australia born singer/songwriter SAYGRACE made the conscious decision to put the version of herself she wants to be into the world. She created songs that tells girls they don’t have to have it all figured out or succumb to pressure to be something they’re not. That it’s okay to just be yourself. And that it’s okay if you don’t know who that is yet. SAYGRACE’s “Boys Ain’t Shit” is an anthem for all women who feel like swiping, doing emotional labor, and the interchangeable nature of modern dating is dehumanizing. Her debut EP, The Defining Moments of SAYGRACE: Girlhood, Fuckboys & Situationships, is her manifesto.
