DEAR EVERYONE —

IT WAS ALMOST EXACTLY A YEAR AGO THAT WE FINISHED RECORDING OUR "NEW" RECORD MEDICINE AT MIDNIGHT, WITH A MASSIVE WORLD TOUR PLANNED THAT WOULD HAVE TAKEN US AROUND THE GLOBE CELEBRATING OUR 25TH ANNIVERSARY AS A BAND. BUT, WELL.... YOU KNOW.....

SO, WE WAITED.

AND WAITED.

AND WAITED.

UNTIL WE FINALLY REALIZED THAT OUR MUSIC IS MADE TO BE HEARD, WHETHER IT'S IN A FESTIVAL FIELD WITH 50,000 OF OUR CLOSEST FRIENDS, OR ALONE IN YOUR LIVING ROOM ON A SATURDAY NIGHT WITH A STIFF COCKTAIL.

SO, THE WAIT IS OVER.

AS WE SAY GOODBYE (FUCK YOU) TO 2020, AND FLIP THE CALENDAR PAGE TO 2021, LET'S RING IN THE NEW YEAR WITH A NEW ROCKER "NO SON OF MINE"

POUR A DRINK, TURN IT UP, CLOSE YOUR EYES AND IMAGINE THAT FESTIVAL FIELD BLOWING UP TO THIS.

BECAUSE IT FUCKING WILL.

HAPPY NEW YEAR X

Foo Fighters are ringing in 2021—literally—with the ear-ringing new "No Son of Mine." The second track to be revealed from the band's forthcoming 10th album Medicine at Midnight (out February 5th on Roswell Records/RCA Records), "No Son of Mine" is now available to stream or download, or as an instant grat track with pre-orders placed at foofighters.co/MAM

"No Son of Mine" ignites the second half of Medicine at Midnight with a lightning strike of a riff that builds into the album's most full-on barnstormer. Replete with nods to familiar FF influences from Queen's "Stone Cold Crazy" to Ace of Spades/Iron Fist-era Motörhead to Metallica's Kill 'Em All, "No Son of Mine" features a streamlined, minimalist chassis of searing Grohl, Smear and Shiflett licks atop a steel-trap-tight Hawkins/Mendel rhythmic frame.

"This is the kind of song that just resides in all of us and if it makes sense at the time, we let it out," Grohl explains, adding, "Lyrically it's meant to poke at the hypocrisy of self-righteous leaders, people that are guilty of committing the crimes they're supposedly against..."

Medicine at Midnight is produced by Greg Kurstin and Foo Fighters, engineered by Darrell Thorp and mixed by Mark "Spike" Stent, and packs the following nine songs into a tight-ass 37 minutes:

Making a Fire
Shame Shame
Cloudspotter
Waiting on a War
Medicine at Midnight
No Son of Mine
Holding Poison
Chasing Birds
Love Dies Young

Foo Fighters are Dave Grohl, Taylor Hawkins, Nate Mendel, Chris Shiflett, Pat Smear, and Rami Jaffee.
