“Devotion is an intimate but vulnerable song. It’s about being devoted to whatever you love, whoever you love and going the length of dying for that someone or something,” says Stith. “For me, I’m devoted to my music, I would die for my music for sure!”

The Jersey native wrote his newest track himself with production by Swagg R’Celious for Progressive Musik Group LLC. Over a few short years, Stith has secured his quadruple-threat status in the entertainment industry. Not only can he play various instruments such as drums, piano and guitar, but as a songwriter, Tone has penned numerous chart-topping hits, including Chris Brown’s “Liquor,” “Make Love” and “Undecided.” Although he has many accolades collaborating with others, Stith’s solo music allows him to shine the brightest with his incomparable falsetto, which he displayed live while on H.E.R.’s I Used To Know Her Tour.

Check out Tone’s latest live version of “Devotion” and look out for more music coming soon.

About Tone Stith:

Jersey-born R&B singer, songwriter, producer and multi-instrumentalist (drums, guitar & piano) Tone Stith released his debut project Can We Talk in 2017, which garnered attention and rave reviews from the likes of Complex, Billboard, HipHopDX among others, and eventually led to his signing with BPG/RCA Records. Stith’s follow up EP Good Company included features from Swae Lee and Quavo on the title track and production from Stith, Bongo ByTheWay (Ty Dolla $ign, 50 Cent), The Audibles (Justin Bieber, Chris Brown), Marcos “Kosine” Palacios (Ella Mai, Christina Aguilera) and THE PRBLM SLVRS. Tone also opened for H.E.R. in 2018 on her I Used To Know Her Tour and more recently released his latest single “Devotion” in November 2020.
