(Los Angeles – February 18, 2021) – Grammy Award-winning, multi-platinum selling rock band KINGS OF LEON have released the accompanying music video for their recently released track, “Echoing” ahead of their highly anticipated eighth studio album When You See Yourself, coming March 5, 2021, on RCA Records. “Echoing” is available everywhere now.

The visual mirrors the song’s energy through dynamic black and white imagery. Consequence of Sound described the song as, “tense and lively,” calling out “anxious, erratic riffs” which are reflected throughout the newly released video.

About Kings of Leon

Since their debut in 2003, Kings of Leon (Caleb (guitar/vocals), Nathan (drums), Jared (bass) and Matthew Followill (guitar)) have released seven albums (Youth & Young Manhood (2003), Aha Shake Heartbreak (2004), Because of the Times (2007), Only by the Night (2008), Come Around Sundown (2010), Mechanical Bull (2013), WALLS (2016), sold over 20 million albums and nearly 40 million singles worldwide. The multi-platinum selling band has had five singles on the Billboard Hot 100 chart, all seven of their studio albums on Billboard's Top 200 list and two singles that reached #1 on Modern Rock radio. With the release of WALLS, the band garnered their first-ever number one album debut on the Billboard Top 200. In addition, they have had eight Grammy Nominations, three Grammy Award wins, three NME Awards, two Brit Awards, and one Juno Award. They have toured all over the world, playing at top venues and headlining major festivals such as Bonnaroo, Lollapalooza, Austin City Limits, and Glastonbury. Kings of Leon is set to release their eighth studio album When You See Yourself this March. For more information, visit www.kingsofleon.com.
