About Bryson Tiller:

Kentucky isn't the quintessential hub for R&B and hip-hop talent, yet 28-year-old singer/songwriter/rapper, Bryson Tiller, emerged from the streets of Louisville with his own brand of street soul (TRAPSOUL) that musically blends the urgency of trap music with the smoother sound of alternative R&B.

He's amassed over 8.8 billion streams and 2.4 billion video views worldwide, staking his claim as one of the young greats of R&B/Hip Hop. His debut album T R A P S O U L is certified RIAA 3x's platinum, and debuted at #2 on the billboard R&B charts. Album tracks "Don't" and "Exchange" are currently certified 4x Platinum. His sophomore album True To Self debuted at #1 on Billboard 200 charts and Top R&B/Hip Hop albums chart with 1.6B streams and counting. Throughout the years Tiller gained 3 Grammy nominations, and won several BET awards.

He recently dropped his long awaited TRAPSOUL (DELUXE) and, his third studio album A N N I V E R S A R Y as a tribute to fans on the 5 year anniversary of T R A P S O U L. These releases held the #2 and #9 spot on Apple Music charts. A N N I V E R S A R Y finds Tiller returning to his Trapsoul roots with lead singles "Always Forever" and "Outta Time" ft Drake. Including production from Noah "40" Shebib, Vinylz, Nineteen85, J-Louis, NES, and Teddy Walton.
