Upon the track release, American Songwriter wrote “The song is part of their upcoming debut EP and is accented with flashes of folk, Americana, bluegrass and country energy, radiating light in a moment when it’s needed the most.”

These two lead tracks are featured on their debut EP PEOPLE DON'T CHANGE via RECORDS/RCA Records out April 23rd.

ABOUT PJ Harding & Noah Cyrus:

Whether or not you believe in fate, its steady hand might just place you exactly where you are meant to be. It certainly brought Noah Cyrus and PJ Harding together. Their paths first crossed in Bali at a 2018 summer songwriting camp. Even though they were never properly paired, PJ wound up contributing guitar to Noah's "Good Cry" and "wished they had a session together." That wish came true a year later. At the same retreat in 2019, PJ and Noah unlocked the kind of chemistry that comes along once-in-a-lifetime. They penned four tunes for what would become her 2020 EP The End of Everything, including the title track, "I Got So High That I Saw Jesus," the double-platinum "July," and "Young & Sad." Noah smiles, "From the moment we met, I just wanted to be in a band with PJ so bad! Even though neither of us expected to be here, it's honestly my dream collaboration, and that's not bullshit because I knew it immediately." Returning to L.A. in the fall, they kept writing without a schedule or a plan. In the face of the global pandemic, they continued crafting songs via the internet. This unfettered creativity against all odds gave birth to their 2021 joint EP, PEOPLE DON'T CHANGE set for release April 23rd. Underscored by flashes of folk eloquence, Americana elegance, bluegrass energy, and country heart, the EP emanates light in a moment when it's needed the most.
