“The teen indie-pop star on the rise makes music that’s achingly vulnerable and cuts straight to the core” – Time Magazine

“the teenage pop artist conquering societal doubt and embracing his inner self” - Billboard

“...the real deal...” - Billboard

“At only 17 years old, it’s safe to say that Isaac Dunbar is a verifiable wunderkind” - Paper Magazine

(Los Angeles, CA – July 2nd, 2021) – Young trailblazing artist Isaac Dunbar releases his newest track “Celebrate” just in time for July 4th weekend via RCA Records. Listen HERE. This release follows Isaac’s critically acclaimed 3rd EP “evil twin” which was released at the top of the year. Billboard said “...evil twin still goes out of its way to prove itself as a tour de force for the pop wunderkind.”

Isaac says, ““Celebrate” is about waking up and choosing happiness every single day instead of getting stuck in your own negativity. It’s sometimes easy to stay in a negative space than move to a positive one so with this song I wanted to bring awareness to that and to give people a reason to choose to Celebrate each day.”

Last year, Isaac released his isaac’s insects EP that featured tracks like “comme des garçons \(like the boys\)” which E! News dubbed “unbelievably catchy”, “scorton’s creek” which Idolator called “his best single yet” and “makeup drawer” where PAPER Magazine praised its “bright melody” and was featured in NPR's "Best Music of 2020" column. His "miss america" track was declared a "...soaring, powerful ballad..." by The Interns. Check out the music video for "miss america" HERE.

About Isaac Dunbar

18-year-old Isaac Dunbar has carved out a spectacular and unique lane as one of the most critically heralded new artists in 2020. After supporting girl in red on her North American and European run of shows in 2019, Dunbar released his highly anticipated debut EP balloons don't float here. It garnered the attention of notable tastemakers like Zane Lowe, The FADER, Ones To Watch, and Hillydilly, which stated: "it's only a matter of time until he gets worldwide recognition." Hailing from Cape Cod, Massachusetts, Isaac's music melds complex sounds and atmospheric, beat-driven production to create melodic and introspective tracks. Last April, Isaac released his isaac's insects EP which led LADYGUNN to call him a "...young pioneer..." and PAPER Magazine declaring him a "...verifiable wunderkind..." Isaac's 3rd EP "evil twins" was released on February 19th via RCA Records.
