(New York – July 30, 2021) Today, Mark Ronson releases an accompanying soundtrack to his Apple Original docuseries “Watch The Sound With Mark Ronson” premiering globally today on Apple +. This new docuseries explores groundbreaking technology in music with Paul McCartney, Questlove, King Princess, Dave Grohl, Ad-Rock and Mike D from the Beastie Boys, Charli XCX and more.

“Watch the Sound with Mark Ronson,” a new six-part Apple Original docuseries, examines sound creation and the revolutionary technology that has shaped music as we know it. Hailing from Academy Award-winning producer Morgan Neville (“20 Feet from Stardom”) and hosted by Mark Ronson, an internationally renowned DJ and Oscar, Golden Globe and seven-time Grammy award-winning artist and producer, each episode of “Watch the Sound with Mark Ronson” follows Ronson as he uncovers the untold stories behind music creation and the lengths producers and creators are willing to go to find the perfect sound. Ronson explores music’s intersection with artistry and technology in candid conversations with music legends and icons including Paul McCartney, Questlove, King Princess, Dave Grohl, Ad-Rock and Mike D from the Beastie Boys, Charli XCX and more, where he discovers the ways in which these unique tools have influenced their work.

At the end of each episode, Ronson creates and unveils a unique piece of original music using groundbreaking technology and techniques including reverb, synthesizers, auto-tune, drum machines, sampling and distortion. Find track listing below.

“Watch the Sound with Mark Ronson” is produced by Tremolo Productions with Ronson, Neville, Mark Monroe, Jason Zeldes and Kim Rozenfeld serving as executive producers.
