September 24, 2021 – Today, multi-platinum selling superstar G-Eazy releases his highly-anticipated fourth studio album, These Things Happen Too via BPG/RVG/RCA Records - LISTEN HERE.

The 19-track album showcases G's multi-faceted artistry with a diverse, yet eclectic body of work, and marks his first full-length record since 2017's critically-acclaimed The Beautiful & Damned.

These Things Happen Too is the sequel to his debut LP, These Things Happen, and highlights G's growth since the 2014 breakout album. The genre-spanning tracklist includes hard-hitting hip-hop anthems such as "Instructions" ft. YG, while also leaning into the pop sphere on tracks like "Breakdown" ft. Demi Lovato and "Faithful" ft. Marc E. Bassy. The album also sees him collaborating with Matthew Shultz of Cage the Elephant for the first time on the heartfelt track "Time," and G ventures into the singer-songwriter lane with an incredible cover of Chris Isaak's "Wicked Game." Full tracklisting is below.

G-Eazy will make his first ever appearance on The Ellen DeGeneres Show today, for a chat and performance of his new song "Faithful" with Marc E. Bassy. He will then take the stage at The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon for the TV debut performance of "Breakdown" with Demi Lovato this Tuesday, September 28.

G-Eazy has been seen across the music festival circuit this Fall with critically-acclaimed performances at BottleRock, Summerfest, and Common Ground. For more information on his upcoming tour dates, please visit: <https://g-eazy.com/pages/tour>.
